

DION O'CONNELL BIO

Dion O'Connell began working as a Deputy City Attorney with the Pasadena City Attorney's Office in January 2022 and is extremely happy representing his hometown. Dion currently is responsible for, among other things, housing, economic development, and real property matters. The previous five years, Dion was an Assistant City Attorney with the Simi Valley City Attorney's Office, where he handled various litigation, transactional and advisory assignments. Prior to that, Dion was a Deputy City Attorney for the City of Los Angeles, litigating from 1988-2004, and advising the Los Angeles City Council from 2003-2016. This is Dion's third year as a member of the Municipal Law Institute Committee. Dion received his BA from UCLA and his JD from Loyola Law, Los Angeles.