

Jennifer Beyers

Jennifer is the lead Land Use counsel in the Redwood City City Attorney's Office. She has over 7 years of public entity legal experience. Before joining Redwood City, Jennifer served as an Associate Attorney at Jorgenson, Siegel, McClure & Flegel, LLP where she advised and counseled public entities and developers in multiple legal areas, including Real Estate, Land Use, General Litigation, Local Zoning & Development, and Municipal Law. Jennifer has a JD from Santa Clara University School of Law, and a BA in Political Science from California State University, Chico.