

Lisa Schwartz

Lisa Schwartz is VP, Global Distribution & Music Counsel at A+E Networks. Lisa is the lead counsel for A+E's global channels business and syndicates A+E's content from A&E, History, Lifetime and other networks throughout the world. She is also responsible for deals securing carriage of A+E's linear networks and direct-to-consumer SVOD services on traditional and OTT platforms in the U.S. As A+E's music counsel, Lisa negotiates agreements with performing rights societies, composers, music publishers, record labels and music production companies. Prior to A+E, Lisa served as VP, Business and Legal Affairs at BBC Worldwide, an entertainment associate at Greenberg Traurig and an associate in the transactional IP practices of Debevoise & Plimpton and Covington & Burling. Lisa also spent five years prior to law school in various roles in technology marketing, including on Intel's consumer products team. Lisa holds a BS in Communication and an MBA from Cornell University and a JD from Stanford Law School.