Alison Regan is the General Counsel for the Santa Monica Rent Control Board. Prior to that, she was a staff attorney for the City of West Hollywood, advising all City departments and elected officials, drafting ordinances, litigating when necessary and providing technical assistance to state legislators and other officials. Her early career was spent honing trial advocacy skills and litigating employment discrimination cases. Most recently, she has taught trial advocacy and pre-trial civil litigation at UCLA law school. In her spare time, Alison enjoys playing ultimate frisbee and finding ways to avoid LA traffic by biking/walking/taking public transportation.
