LAW SCHOOL Los Angeles, CA

Political Activity Request Form

Before planning and announcing an on-campus or off-campus event that includes a political candidate, a faculty member, department, or student organization (Host) must submit this form and receive written approval in accordance with Southwestern's Political Activity Policy. The President and Dean must approve requests from a faculty member or department, and the Student Affairs Office must approve requests from student organizations. Please note that a political candidate will not be permitted to speak at any Southwestern event, whether on or off campus, within 45 calendar days before election day.

Instructions: Faculty members and departments must complete and submit this form to lawdean@swlaw.edu. Student organizations must complete and submit this form to studentaffairs@swlaw.edu. The Host must submit this request at least 45 calendar days before the anticipated event and should allow at least 10 business days for the request to be considered.
